Mission Credit Opportunity! DIAD with Philabundance July 9, 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Philabundance is a nonprofit organization that works to end hunger and malnutrition in the Delaware Valley. The organization works with the food industry, manufacturers, importers, farms, local communities, and the government to acquire food and distribute it to people in need through direct distribution programs, member agencies, and their Community Kitchen. It provides food to approximately 65,000 people per week.

As volunteers for the afternoon at the Philabundance Hunger Relief Center, we will contribute to their mission by sorting donated, nonperishable food, packing food boxes, organizing and stocking shelves, and assisting as needed in their warehouse located at 3616 South Galloway Street in Philadelphia. Please come on Saturday, July 9, 2011, from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. to help support Philabundance. For more information on Philabundance, please visit www.philabundance.org.

Philabundance requires a final count no less than one week prior to our volunteer date. Please do not cancel your reservation within one week.
